ALOHA PETROLEUM DONATES OVER $7,000 TO ALOHA HARVEST

HONOLULU, HAWAII (July 31, 2015) -Aloha Petroleum, Ltd., on behalf of its customers, recently donated $7,182.32 to Aloha Harvest in support of the nonprofit organization's efforts to provide food for those in need. The funds were raised through the ongoing canister collection program at statewide participating Aloha Island Mart stores.

"Aloha Harvest fills such a tremendous need in our community, and we are proud to support its efforts to provide quality food to the thousands of residents who face hunger each day," said Tom Grimes, vice president and chief financial officer of Aloha Petroleum, Ltd. "We thank our generous customers for making this gift possible through their donations in May and June."

Aloha Harvest is a non-profit organization that collects donated food and delivers it "free of charge" to social service agencies feeding the hungry in Hawaii. Since its founding almost 16 years ago, Aloha Harvest has collected and distributed nearly 15 million pounds of food donated by more than 650 participating restaurants, caterers, government facilities, hotels, food distributors, businesses and others.

Aloha Petroleum, Ltd. has previously used its collection canister program to support Aloha Harvest as well as various other nonprofits, including the March of Dimes, AccesSurf, American Heart Association, and American Red Cross.
