ALOHA PETROLEUM FAMILY MEMBER AWARDED $4,000 SCHOLARSHIP FROM WESTERN PETROLEUM MARKETERS ASSOCIATION

HONOLULU, HAWAII (May 20, 2015) – Castle High School Senior Marissa Lum, daughter of Aloha Petroleum, Ltd. Controller Timothy Lum, has been awarded a $4,000 scholarship from the Western Petroleum Marketers Association (WPMA). Lum earned the scholarship for her outstanding scholastic performance and extensive community service as an active member of the Science, Technology, Engineering and Math (STEM) Club, Girl Scouts of Hawai'i, and St. Ann's Church and Model Schools.

"I'm very grateful for this scholarship from the WPMA, which will help offset some of the costs of attending the University of Hawaii at Manoa in the Fall," said Lum. She plans to earn her degree in Biology and a post-graduate degree in Pharmacy.

Lum has been a Girl Scout from the age of five and last year achieved the organization's highest award, the Gold Award, for organizing a public event called the Lei of Aloha at Windward Mall. She has also participated in countless community service projects, from volunteering at the Hawaiian Humane Society to being a camp counselor at Camp Paumalu and at the Castle Complex Leadership Camp. She is the president of Castle High School's National Honor Society and a member of HOSA-Future Health Professionals and College for Every Student. She was the class council treasurer during her freshman year and then has held the position of the Knights Executive Board treasurer for the last three years.

“The WPMA scholarship is a highly competitive award and recipients have proven to be among the state’s brightest minds,” said Robert Fung, secretary and general counsel for Aloha Petroleum and WPMA immediate past president. “We are honored that one of our employee’s deserving family member has been selected for this award, and we’re certain that Marissa has a very bright future ahead of her.”

Recipients of the annual WPMA scholarship must be a graduating high school senior who is the son or daughter of a WPMA marketer in one of the seven member states with active chapters. Aloha Petroleum is an active member of the local chapter, Hawaii Petroleum Marketers Association, which has 9 members that directly market petroleum products at more than 150 locations across the Hawaiian Islands. To date, the WPMA has awarded $600,000 in scholarships to deserving students throughout Hawai‘i, Washington, Montana, Idaho, Nevada, Utah and New Mexico.
